Treasurer's Report

Janet Shattuck reported on the auction proceeds to the teachers, we did lose money on the Dinner/Bingo but it was a great event. We incurred some bank charges do to higher activity in May than normal. We renewed our Washington State Charitable Solicitations form, due May 31 each year for the prior fiscal year end. The fee went up from $10 to $40. We had the last of the pencil sales and popcorn sales. Janet plans to have the Laurin pencil box fixed by next fall. We sold more field day t-shirts and paid for our order and paid an invoice for Laurin shirts. We paid for more Laurin student incentives and had reimbursed expenses for Teacher Appreciation Week. Glenwood library had a final Scholastic BOGO sale that went very well.

Principal's Report

Jodee McMillen, Laurin Principal, met with the Watch Dogs Program organizer, Jim Fairchild, to talk about getting that program started at Laurin for the next school year. Glenwood and Laurin will work together to promote and get volunteers.

Old Business

The Spaghetti/Auction/Bingo night went well. It raised money for the classrooms and was a lot of fun for the students and families. Several teachers helped make it a success, along with the PTO Committee organizers.

New Business

New PTO Board Member, Kara Lavender, was nominated and voted in as the Glenwood/Laurin PTO Treasurer for the 2011/2012 schoolyear.

The Popcorn machine is broken again. There was discussion about possibly buying a new one. Jamie Blick volunteered to look in to how much a new one would cost.

Events/Fundraisers

The payback books will be offered again next year. Jamie Blick reported that the company is doing a lottery system and not every school is able to participate. Glenwood Heights was one of the schools randomly chosen to sell the Payback Books next year. There was also discussion on when they should go up for sale. David Kennedy said it would be preferable to wait until the first two weeks of school is over due to the many assemblies and busy beginning of the year. No decision was made on a specific date.

The meeting was adjourned.
